

BUILDING PATHWAYS TO EMPLOYMENT: THE DDS-UCLA PARTNERSHIP FOR AUTISTIC ADULTS

Learning Objectives

- Describe the key components of the DDS-UCLA partnership model for supporting autistic adults in advocacy and employment.
- Identify strategies used to develop career readiness and employment pathways for autistic individuals.
- Understand how advocacy training and social skills development contribute to successful workplace outcomes for autistic adults.

Register

Dr. Elizabeth Laugeson

Clinical Professor, UCLA
Director, UCLA PEERS Clinic
Director, UCLA Tarjan Center UCEDD

Featuring Community Discussant

Monika Jezebelle

LEND Trainee & Senior Fellow,
UCLA Leadership Academy

Monday, July 20, 2026

12:00pm–1:30pm PDT

Free and live on Zoom!

For recorded lectures, please visit:
www.semel.ucla.edu/tarjan/lecture-series

For information, please contact:
tarjancenter@mednet.ucla.edu

