

Tarjan Center Lecture Series presents:
Broadening the Training Experience:
Cultivating Champions in Public Policy for People with Developmental Disabilities

Tarjan Center Diversity Fellows:

- Artha Gillis, M.D., Ph.D., Post Doctoral Fellow, Psychiatry & Biobehavioral Sciences
- Melina Melgoza, BA Candidate, UCLA
- Violeta Chavez-Serrano, BA Candidate, UCLA

Moderator: Olivia Raynor, Ph.D., Director, Tarjan Center

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

1. Increase awareness of the Tarjan Center's advocacy for policies and issues important to individuals with disabilities and their families at the local, state and national levels.
2. Learn about engaging trainees in advocacy work as a means to enhance professional development and future careers.

WEDNESDAY

May 17th, 2017

12:30 – 1:30 PM

Location: U C L A

300 Medical Plaza, Suite 3200

3rd Floor Marisa Leif Conference Room

Los Angeles, CA 90095

Light snacks and beverages will be served.

Giveaways provided at this lecture.

All are welcome. No RSVP is required.

tarjancenter.org/lectureseries

For more information or to request a disability accommodation, contact:

310.825.5054 | bstoffmacher@mednet.ucla.edu